Medical & Liability Disclaimer

Orca/humpback encounter

Swimming with orcas/humpbacks

I, the undersigned, hereby confirm that I understand and acknowledge the inherent riskinvolved in the activities I am undertaking under the auspices of Whale2Sea.
I acknowledge that as with any outdoor or ocean-based activity there are inherent risks and hereby take full responsibility for my health and actions releasing Whale2Sea from any claim action and/or liability.

Booking number: _____

Tour Time: _____

Date of activity: _____

Full name: _____

Home address: _____

Post code/city: _____ Country: _____

Phone No: _____ E-mail: _____

Emergency contact name (not someone who's on the tour): _____

For your benefit it is helpful for our crew to know the level of confidence you have inswimming in the open sea.

- I am a confident swimmer. -I can swim. -I am not a confident swimmer.

-Do you have any allergies? Yes No

If yes, please specify:

- Have you suffered from panic attacks and/or claustrophobia? Yes No

Important - As with any wildlife experience there are no guarantees of success of snorkelling or seeing whales. Swimming with marine mammals in Northern Norway can be a strenuous activity and requires general physical, psychological fitness and good health. Sea conditions can be variable and water/outdoor temperatures are generally relatively low. Should you have amedical history or have a condition that may be aggravated by such conditions it is important to disclose any such information to assist our crew in managing operations. Such conditions are (but not restricted to) diabetes, epilepsy, high blood pressure, heart conditions or pregnancy.

- Do you have any health conditions such as above?

If yes, please specify:

_____

_____

_____

Declaration:

- I consider myself to be medically fit to participate in this activity. I will, in the interest of safety, comply with all instructions given by the crew. I understand that this tour is an open ocean experience and that there are no guarantees. I understand and acknowledge the above information is true & correct and certify that I comply with the terms above.

Before leaving everyone will receive a snorkel kit (snorkel, mask). These are to be returned to Whale2Sea after the tour. In case of any loss or damage, the value of the lost/damaged item(s) will be charged on you.

Signature/date/place: (Please note: signatures are to be signed prior to boarding the boat).

_____

Signature of parent/guardian (if child is under 18):

_____